

Achim Wehrmann

Director Shipping, Federal Ministry of Transport and Digital Infrastructure

---

Achim Wehrmann worked from 1996 to 2000 in the German Bundestag as the Scientific assistant of the Deputy Speaker for Transport of the SPD parliamentary group and Member of Parliament, Annette Faße.

In 2001 he started his career in the German Federal Ministry of Transport and Digital Infrastructure as the personal assistant to the Parliamentary State-Secretary and Member of Parliament, Angelika Mertens.

After working as the Deputy Head of Division responsible for Maritime shipping policy, maritime industry and maritime ports since August 2003, Achim Wehrmann was appointed Head of Division in September 2004.

Following this, in 2007 he was made Head of the Division responsible for National maritime shipping and inland waterway transport policy as well as ports industry.

Achim Wehrmann is Head of the Shipping Directorate of the Ministry since October 2008.