

Lyuba Hristova

Head of International Regulations and Cooperation Department

Lyuba Hristova joined the Executive Agency Maritime Administration in 2016 as chief expert in the International Regulations and Cooperation Department under the International & National Maritime Shipping Regulations Directorate. In 2020 she became head of the same department and currently she is responsible for the international regulations and bilateral cooperation in the field of maritime transport in the Executive Agency Maritime Administration.